DETROIT RECRUITS

PURCHASES BY GUS ROSENBERGER BRING NEW FAMILIES TO BOOST FOR GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Rosenberger, who came to Southern California from Detroit, Michigan, and fell so deeply in love with Glendale that they purchased property of considerable extent at 1424 South Glendale avenue, had expected to spend the summer here but were obliged to return to Michigan to complete the sale of their summer home, a very beautiful and thoroughly furnished home. They have since been disposing of all their eastern holdings and as soon as the transactions are finished they will come back to Glendale by train. Accompanying them will be Mrs. Rosenberger's son, Arthur Kellogg, and her father, Mr. Heminger. In charge of the Glendale avenue property in their absence are Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg, a son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Rosenberger, who report that the plan is to further improve the property with a bungalow court and another bungalow.

Mrs. Kellogg has been made happy by the receipt of a letter from her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, of Detroit, who also have the California fever and are selling out there in the expectation of leaving with their two children inside of two weeks for Glendale. Mrs. Kellogg says that in spite of the fact that she is a stranger here she has never experienced a lonely or homesick day, and she, like the rest of her family, is a great booster for Glendale, which she considers the most attractive suburb in Los Angeles county.

EXODUS TO SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Mary C. Beauchamp, of 1210 South Glendale avenue, who came to Glendale from Alva, Oklahoma, last fall, was delighted to receive a call this week from old friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tanner, who, like herself, have come to the coast to live. They have purchased property close to the University in Los Angeles as they have two sons to educate and wished to be located conveniently with reference to a university. Mrs. Beauchamp expects to have her family all assembled here by fall. A son and daughter who went back to Oklahoma will return to Glendale to stay, and another son who is working in Nevada during the summer vacation, will also join her. She considers the exodus to Southern California that is now going on, particularly in Oklahoma, is astonishing and yet not surprising when all the conditions are taken into account.

ROY VON KOLKEN MOVES TO TULARE CO. RANCH

Roy Von Kolken, who lived for several years at 618 East Chestnut street, last week sold the place to I. J. Herbert, of Los Angeles, discontinued his vegetable route and moved up to Waukena, Tulare county, on a ranch he had bought. His health had been poor for years and an attack of influenza a few months ago still further weakened him, so he decided that life in the open was a necessity. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert, their two sons and daughter have moved into the place they bought of Mr. Von Kolken and are making several alterations to the house.

KELLEY HOME SOLD

PURCHASED BY NEW COMERS FROM EAST BEFORE IT HAD BEEN PLACED ON MARKET

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Kelley of 1251 South Glendale avenue had a surprise last Saturday in the sale of their home. They had been considering the advisability of disposing of it but had not placed it upon the market. However, a Mr. and Mrs. Dodge and two daughters, who are new comers from the east, called upon them with a proposition to purchase, and almost before the Kelleys were aware of what was happening the transaction was closed. The grounds have been improved with a good many ornamental shrubs and flowers which greatly delighted the visitors and so the sale was not difficult of negotiation. They are to have possession within thirty days. The Kelleys will store their household effects and take a vacation and will then build on property owned by Mr. Kelley on North Glendale avenue where he now has nursery stock.

DAN KELTY HOME

RETURNS FROM SIX WEEKS' TRIP TO FAR EAST—GLAD TO GET BACK

Dan Kelty, Jr., arrived at home Monday from his trip to New Haven, Conn., and intermediate points, after an absence of six weeks. The object of his going, as stated at length in the Evening News, was to attend a several days' entertainment and school of salesmanship given by the Winchester Arms Company. Dan said program announced beforehand was carried out to the letter and considerable added to it. There were 1500 hardware dealers present, from every state in the Union, and many took their wives with them. A big steamship was chartered to take all of them to New Haven, Conn., from New York City, the trip along the north coast of Long Island Sound taking the greater part of a day. Every afternoon and evening was given to some kind of entertainment, the crowning feature of which was a New England clam bake, which two experts, one from Boston, prepared. Each guest was served with a dozen or more clams, two large lobsters, chicken, asparagus, potatoes and watermelon. Dan said everybody was sick next day.

Housing conditions in the East are much the same as here, he says, with people clamoring for places to live. Business conditions are bad, because of lack of laborers and materials. Many machines, especially in the hardware and arms manufacturing lines, are standing idle, he says, because workmen cannot be had and also because of steel shortage.

Dan is mighty glad to be back home again and he still thinks Glendale the fairest spot on earth.

DEATH OF R. M. JACKSON

Robert M. Jackson died this morning at 7:20 after many months of suffering from heart and kidney trouble. The end had been expected most any time for the past week and he has been unconscious all that time. Funeral services will be arranged later and announcement made in the Evening News. The widow, Mrs. Alice Jackson, is with her sister, Mrs. M. Ewell Smith, at the home of their niece, Mrs. W. E. Evans, 333 North Orange.

MANY NEW HOMES NEEDED

In spite of the fact that nearly 400 new residences have been built in Glendale during the past year and more than thirty have been commenced since July 1st, there is still an insistent demand by strangers for rental property in this most desirable city of homes. The Evening News office is besieged daily with anxious inquirers for some kind of a house to live in that they can rent by the month, six months or year. If such a condition prevails in mid-summer, supposedly the dullest time of the year, what will it be when the usual winter rush opens? It is really a calamity that so many desirable families ardently wishing to live in Glendale, have to go away unsatisfied.

CORN WORMS

JUDGE TEMPLETON DESCRIBES METHOD OF CONTROL HE HAS FOUND EFFECTIVE

Judge Templeton of 915 East Acacia avenue when asked for news mentioned as of most outstanding interest to him the fact that worms are working in the corn. He became acquainted with them in the east and there learned methods of controlling the pest. One of the ways he mentioned is sprinkling wood ashes or sulphur just as it is coming into tassels. This kills the insects which lay their eggs in the pollen and are carried onto the corn silk when the pollen drops upon it. Another method is to spray the tassels with a solution of arsenic of lead and this he considers the most effective. This information should be of considerable value to those who have young corn coming on which they would like to protect from this most obnoxious pest.

DEATH OF J. F. ANDERSON

J. F. Anderson of 239 North Kenwood died Wednesday morning after an illness of several months. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Eva N. Anderson, a son, Albert, of L. A., and a daughter, Josephine V. Miller, of Sacramento. He was a member of the Knights Templar order.

Services will be held at Rosedale Crematory Saturday at 2 p. m. Deceased was a business man in Los Angeles for 25 years or more.

BRUTAL MURDER

PROMINENT FULLERTON RANCHER KILLED AND HIS WIFE AT POINT OF DEATH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

FULLERTON, Cal., July 15.—Roy Trapp, a prominent Fullerton rancher was brutally murdered by two men who broke into the Trapp home at midnight. The murderers struck Trapp over the head with a cement club while he slept. Mrs. Trapp leaped from the bed beside her husband and grappled with his assailants. They choked her and then struck her on the head, fracturing her skull, and escaped. Five hours later Mrs. Trapp regained consciousness and telephoned a neighbor but dropped unconscious again while at the telephone.

City Marshal Myers was called and when he arrived Mrs. Trapp was near to death and was rushed to the Fullerton hospital.

Meyers organized a posse and during the morning two Mexicans were arrested, having been identified as men with whom Trapp had had trouble about a week ago.

Trapp comes of a family well known in Southern California. He has several brothers and sisters residing in Los Angeles.

CHICAGO CAR SERVICE PARALYZED

STRIKE OF 350 ELECTRICAL WORKERS AT 4 A. M. STALLS ALL CARS ON SYSTEM

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, July 15.—A strike of 350 electrical workers at 4 a. m. today completely tied up the Chicago street car lines. The cars were stalled on the streets and during the early morning hours all efforts were directed toward returning them to the car stables. No effort was made to carry passengers. The company plans to resume operations as soon as possible with non-union men.

During the morning one car appeared on the loop but it carried few passengers. A union crew manned it.

The first accident of the strike occurred when a truck carrying thirty passengers to work struck an iron post and one girl was killed and seven persons injured.

ARMISTICE REJECTED

RUSSIAN SOVIET GOVERNMENT REFUSES BRITISH PROPOSAL TO CHECK ADVANCE AGAINST POLAND

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, July 15.—A Moscow dispatch received today stated that the Russian soviet government will reject the British armistice proposal and will refuse to hold up the "red" advance against Poland.

INTERNATIONAL YACHT RACE

THE RESOLUTE, REPRESENTING AMERICA, COMPETING WITH SHAMROCK 4TH, IS IN LEAD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ABOARD U. S. S. DESTROYER GOLDSBOROUGH, July 15.—In the midst of a storm which marred a day that had given early indications of being perfect, the Resolute and the Shamrock 4th crossed the line today for the first race of the series which will determine the possession of the yacht cup now held by America and represented by the Resolute.

The Resolute crossed the line at 40 seconds after noon. The Shamrock crossed one minute and 38 seconds after noon. The Shamrock got away from a bad start. She was over the line at the starting signal and was forced to re-cross giving the Resolute a lead of 200 yards.

A heavy wind, thunder and rain storm came up which made the going hard for the two yachts. At the end of the first nine miles the Resolute was a half mile ahead. Many airplanes hovered overhead and the two yachts were followed by a large number of small craft and course tenders. A government radioscope was forced to land near the coast by the storm and destroyers rushed to her aid, taking off her ten passengers.

VAN DE WATER

REPUBLICANS OF NINTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT SELECT LEADER AT CONFERENCE

A get-together conference was held by the Republicans of the Ninth Congressional District at Hotel Pasadena yesterday. The meeting was called to order by Judge Waldo of Pasadena. Joseph Allard of Pomona was elected temporary chairman, and Harry B. Westgate of Pomona was elected temporary secretary.

The Chairman named the chairmen of the various assembly districts as the Committee on Credentials. The committee reported that there were 105 persons eligible to seats in this conference.

The meeting was then permanently organized by electing the temporary President and temporary Secretary as the permanent officers.

It was then stated that the object of the meeting was to have the Republicans of the 9th Congressional District decide upon a candidate that they could unite in supporting. After four informal ballots Chas. Van de Water of Long Beach was chosen as the candidate to represent the Republicans in this conference meeting.

Montville Flowers, who was a candidate for Congress, Republican ticket, two years ago but who had announced at the opening of the conference yesterday that he would not be a candidate on this year's ticket received a very complimentary vote on the second informal ballot, his vote being a majority of all the votes cast. Mr. Flowers positively declined to accept the nomination.

J. W. Reagan of Long Beach refused to have his name considered in this conference, he having already filed his petition as a candidate for congressman in the 9th District.

It has been reported that Councilman Criswell of Los Angeles is also a candidate, but refused to enter this conference.

TRUE SABBATH

EVANGELIST PROUT REVIEWS BIBLICAL AUTHORITY FOR SEVENTH-DAY KEEPING

The large gospel pavilion, corner of Central and Harvard streets, was again crowded last evening to hear Evangelist C. A. Prout present the subject, "Did Christ or His Apostles Keep Sunday the First Day, or Saturday, the Seventh-day, as the Sabbath?"

Mr. Prout in introducing the subject stated that he had no desire whatever to introduce religious controversy, but in the interests of truth and the Protestant principle of the Bible and the Bible only as the rule of Christian faith and practice, it was essential that the Bible teaching upon this important theme should be clearly understood. He positively declared that:

"Jesus Christ never kept Sunday nor any of His apostles and any one who tries to bolster up its observance, as even the Lord's Day, has a hard time to find scripture to honestly prove the position. Sunday keeping follows New Testament times and that is why there is no proof."

"The Christian Church had begun to feel the great apostasy foretold by Paul, 2 Thess. 2:2-4, in the 3d and 4th centuries after Christ, before Sunday keeping was introduced into the church, and this came about as the result of heathen influence."

MAGNOLIA PLAYGROUND

The director of the Magnolia Municipal Playground reports that the expenditures made by the City Trustees have already been justified. The attendance which was excellent at the beginning, is increasing daily and the ages range from the infant in arms to the graybeard. They come not from the neighborhood alone but from all parts of the city. The bulk of the day attendance is children from 6 to 14, but the older men employed in factories and at other work have discovered it is a pleasant place to spend the evening and are coming in increasing numbers after supper to participate in the twilight games. Croquet is an especial favorite these hot days and more and more the lovers of this game are discovering the excellent facilities for play at Magnolia.

FAMILY DINNER PARTY

Dr. and Mrs. Howard F. Rand of 526 East Palmer avenue entertained Sunday with a family dinner at which covers were laid for twenty. Guests of honor were Mrs. Rand's sister, Dr. Essie Brown, who came down from San Jose and brought with her a nephew, Robert Morton, whom all were glad to see. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown of San Fernando and four children and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carroll and their little daughter, also Mr. and Mrs. E. Clough of Jackson street, this city, sister and brother-in-law of the hostess and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor, also the young people of the household, Helen, Naomi, Frederick and Paul Rand. All the guests remained for a social afternoon. Dr. Brown will make quite a visit here before returning to San Jose.

ENTERTAINING GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mitchell of 1233 South Boynton street have been entertaining a number of guests during the past week. Miss Della Kiefer of El Paso, Texas, whom they knew in the east, is with them now, having stopped off to see them on her way to La Jolla, where she will spend the balance of the summer. Another friend, Mrs. Carl Lehman, who is spending the summer with her mother in Pasadena, was their Sunday guest, and Wednesday E. W. Morrison of Berkeley, an old friend of Mr. Mitchell, spent the day with them.

MOVING TO GLENDALE

Arthur Campbell and family will move out this week from Los Angeles and occupy the temporary residence just completed on Highland avenue, north of Kenneth Road, near his brother Dan's and Dan Kelty, Jr.'s residences. He has plans drawn for a large and commodious home which he expects to build later.

WEATHER FORECAST: Partly cloudy tonight and Friday.

KENSINGTON CLUB

WOMEN OF W. R. C. DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF MRS. JOE GRIFFIN

Members of the Kensington Club and visitors to the number of forty-one were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Joe Griffin on W. Acacia avenue and had a delightful social afternoon. Two contests were outstanding features of the program. The first was musical arranged by Mrs. Winona Crawford, who presided at the piano and played a few bars of some well-known patriotic song. The guests had been provided with paper and pencils and were allowed a certain interval in which to record the name of the song thus suggested before the next one was indicated. There were eighteen all told and the prize, a dainty glass nappie, went to Mrs. Queen Danner. The next contest was historical, a series of questions such as: "In what year was the Civil War begun? In what year was the W. R. C. organized? What Southern man wrote a patriotic song sung in the north? What northern man wrote a song that has always been popular in the south?" The two songs referred to were "Star Spangled Banner" and "Dixie." Mrs. Houdyshe took the prize in this contest, which was also a glass nappie.

A beautiful piano solo was contributed by Mrs. Scott, who bears her eighty-four years with all the charm and graciousness of a typical woman of the south. Mrs. Ruth Olsenhansen sang two classical numbers in her customary delightful manner.

At the close of the program refreshments of fruited frappe and cake were served by Misses Edith Reynolds and Jessie Griffin.

The hostess was assisted by Mesdames Quintina Hammond, Julia Sanders, Juliana Hayes and Adelaide Chapplius, and she was warmly congratulated on the success of the club meeting, which will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Peckham.

NINETEEN YEARS MARRIED

J. E. Peters and wife of 209 N. Orange celebrated the 19th anniversary of their marriage yesterday, very quietly, going away together for an afternoon of enjoyment. They were married in Mt. Carmel, Ill., and there the three children, Misses Garnet and Fern and Howard, were born. They came to Glendale to live in 1910, went back to the old home in June of the next year, but were glad to return to Glendale in the latter part of January, 1912, and here they have lived ever since. Mr. and Mrs. Peters were given quite an ovation at the church night supper in the Christian Church bungalow last evening when Rev. Cole announced the fact that it was their wedding anniversary.

EGG WITHIN AN EGG

Mrs. M. L. Montanye of 458 West Broadway found in one of her hen's nests yesterday morning an unusually large egg which had been laid by a year-old White Leghorn pullet she had raised. She measured it and found it to be 8 1/4 inches in circumference the long way and 7 inches the other. Wishing to make a cake and thinking she had a double-yolked egg she broke it and was surprised to find inside, surrounded by the albumen or "white" and not a particle of yolk, a perfect egg of ordinary size. She brought the large, broken shell, the inner egg and the "white" that surrounded the latter to the Evening News office in a bowl, to substantiate her remarkable story.

JOSEPH WEBSTER PLACE SOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Webster the latter part of last week sold their home at 215 West Park avenue to a Mr. Praf, who came to Glendale from Long Beach, but who is a recent comer in Southern California from Texas and an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. John Strother and other members of the Oklahoma colony. The Websters will give possession about the 20th and say they will camp while they are building a new home at the corner of Central and Park avenues.

EXPECTS FATHER AND SISTER

Mrs. A. W. Cannaday, who returned to occupy her home at 436 West Harvard recently after an absence of several years in Pekin, Ill., where she was taking care of her aged father, is expecting him, also her sister, to come to Glendale this fall to live with her.

THE COURAGE TO ECONOMIZE

Considerably more than a century ago Benjamin Franklin propounded to the American people a gospel of thrift upon which was established the prosperity of the republic. His homely advice to take care of the pennies, to keep everlasting and jealous watch upon the odds and ends of extravagance and waste were followed by the founders of the nation, of necessity as well as of choice. His advice, valued in the days when the land was being rough-hewn from the wilderness, became invaluable to the struggling states recovering from a long and exhausting war for independence. Americans saved, and from their economies rose the colossal prosperity that marked ensuing decades.

With plenty came less need to conserve, and with a slackening of the grip of necessity ensued a weakening of the will to save. Prosperity became commonplace. And with the distribution of wealth, and an easing of the bonds of circumstance, came a lessened respect for thrift. Men took pride not so much in what they saved as in what they spent. They feared to be thought niggardly. Rather than be thought penny wise they preferred to be pound foolish.

The pity of it is that the extravagance which in recent years has become a national characteristic has not been confined to those who could most afford it. It has invaded all ranks, and been most pronounced by men and women who sought to clothe their modest circumstances by a show of plenty. There is a story told—and a true one—of a millionaire and a young friend who were walking down one of our great shopping avenues. It was in the days when half a dollar would buy a good pair of suspenders—and suspenders were worn. The younger man was about to enter a haberdashery to spend his half dollar when his more experienced mentor saw a sign across the street advertising suspenders at 45 cents. He called his friend's attention to it. "Oh, I wouldn't walk across the street to save five cents," the prosperous youth remarked. "Young man," said the veteran of finance, "I work a year—and sometimes longer—to make 10 per cent on my money. You have a chance here to save as much in five minutes."

There is food for thought here for every employer and every employee, for every householder in the land. We should not be ashamed to practice the small economies. We may some day be ashamed if we don't.

It may or may not have special significance in a presidential year, but, according to department of agriculture statistics, the peanut market, in the face of curtailed crops, is in the throes of a decided slump.

The 1918 crop, according to the figures, was 45,000,000 bushels, dropping in 1919 to 33,000,000 bushels of yield. This is a great opportunity for the paragoners.

Growers who were holding for a rising market have been disappointed. In the face of a probable further curtailment in the yield this year, the price paid growers has been steadily dropping since January 1. Says the Washington dispatch:

"The market on cleaned stock has been gradually growing weaker since the first of the year, owing to the severe winter months and the heavy importations of oriental nuts. This situation has in turn exerted a bearish influence on the farmers' market with the result that it gradually weakened from the middle to the end of February, when a range of 8 1-2 to 9 1-2 cents a pound was reached. The prices prevailed until the end of March, at which time the market was apparently considerably stronger, although the feeling on the part of the trade has not been reflected to any marked extent in the price being paid for farmers' stock."

Personals

Mrs. Earl J. Hamill of this city has been visiting in San Diego for the past week.

Miss Cora C. Powell of 510 South Adams has gone to Laguna Beach for a two weeks' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hitchcock and little daughters spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Herron in Sunland.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Krug of Los Angeles have been visiting their mother, Mrs. A. Pierce, of 1311 East Harvard.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoppard of San Diego are spending a few weeks with their mother, Mrs. La Rowe, of East Harvard.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Critchlow of 1317 East Harvard street, spent Saturday and Sunday camping in Topanga Canyon.

Little Irene Anderson, of 1312 East Harvard has been very ill, but her condition is so much improved that she is now out of danger.

Dr. and Mrs. Montague Cleaves of 1276 South Boynton street went north on a motoring tour about three weeks ago. They are expected home in a week or two.

The Misses Hoyer, who are living at 1210 S. Glendale Ave., on Tuesday entertained Mr. and Mrs. Stitt of St. Louis, Mo., who are visiting Southern California.

Miss Abbie Terry, who resigned her position as head of the Dramatic Department of Glendale High, says she is going to have a good long rest before she resumes work of any kind.

Miss Catherine Taylor, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. A. Anderson, at 1312 East Harvard St., has been in Catalina the past week. She is an advanced student in the Egan School of Dancing in Los Angeles.

Miss Bessie Field is attending the U. of C. Southern Branch summer school, driving over each day in her Ford sedan and taking with her Miss Poppy, Miss Hilda Smith, and W. D. Root. They are enjoying the sessions very much.

From the third to the tenth of August there will be quite an exodus of Grand Army men and members of the Women's Relief Corps to Huntington Beach for the annual encampment. Preliminary arrangements are already being negotiated.

Mrs. Clara F. Brown, of 331 Hawthorne street is enjoying a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Orr, and grand-daughter, Miss Helen Orr, of Chicago Heights, Ill. Miss Helen will remain with her grandmother to enter the Glendale school this fall.

Mrs. Eva Cunningham and her two sons who are now at Ocean Park will leave the 30th for Ventura to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gray, and the following morning they will leave by auto for the Yosemite Valley for a stay of two weeks.

Mrs. Klingerman, who was widowed a few months ago, rented her place on East Palmer avenue for a year to Los Angeles people after the death of her husband and with her little five-year-old son went east to her parents. She expected to return inside of a year.

A party of Glendalians who left Monday for the Yosemite included Thomas J. Trull of 800 South Maryland avenue, his daughter, Miss Louise Trull, Mrs. Fannie Stone and son Donald, and Mr. and Mrs. David Young. They expect to be gone ten days or two weeks.

H. S. Latham and wife, who came to California from Delaware, Ohio, a few months ago and recently bought the Larson residence property at 330 West Broadway, are rejoicing over the arrival of their son, Dana, from Chicago University where he has been attending the Law School.

Mrs. L. T. Goodno has engaged Chas. W. Kent & Son to erect at 123-125 South Maryland avenue, just in rear of the new Glendale Theater building, a brick store room 70 feet deep, with one story and a basement. It is to house a candy manufactory. The permit calls for an expenditure of $10,000.

A thunder storm at any time in the year in this beautiful city of Glendale is very unusual and when one comes in July it is considered quite remarkable. So early risers could hardly believe their ears when rain drops were heard pattering on the roof along about four o'clock preceded and followed by very loud thunder claps. There were light showers long after daylight, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry St. Clair of 1250 South Maryland have had most encouraging letters from their daughter, Mary St. Clair, who left here in June to return to Oklahoma City, her former home. She was considerably run down in health when she left here but has made great improvement in that regard and plans to remain away a year. She has been enthusiastically welcomed by her old school friends and is having a royal good time.

J. F. Stanford has commenced a 5-room residence at 359 Burchett, to cost $3500.

W. G. Boyd has taken out a permit for a $1000 addition to the Mrs. J. E. Weaver home at 400 East Harvard.

Walter E. Smith will build a garage and add to his residence at 1106 East Colorado, the cost of the improvement being estimated at $900.

A permit was taken out yesterday for the erection by Kent & Son of 4-room residence at 121 West Maple for Ezra Parker, the cost being stated at $500.

R. R. Davis of 410 North Adams street has sold the lot adjoining his property on the north to W. J. Minderhout, a young business man of Los Angeles. Mr. Minderhout will build a beautiful bungalow on the property.

Mrs. William C. Mabry of 115 E. Acacia is entertaining her mother and sister, Mrs. Mayne and Miss Mary Mayne, and Miss Clare Ellerbeck, an old friend, all from Salt Lake City, who have come to spend the summer in Southern California. They came by auto and got here just before the gasoline shortage became acute.

The local cantaloupe harvest has begun and the acreage along Sixth street, both east and west of Grand View avenue, Kenneth Road, Tenth street and other northwest sections is now piled high with crates to receive the melons. The Tiptop and Pineapple varieties are raised almost exclusively around Glendale. A very few Honeydews are seen.

Harold F. Benner of Los Angeles, formerly a Glendale boy, who has been associated with the Boy Scout organization for the past nine years, was in Glendale Wednesday in the interest of the California Motor Company with which he is connected. Mr. Benner expects to organize a branch sales department for the Moon Modern Six in Glendale shortly.

The weekly Wednesday night church supper at Central Christian last night was unusually well attended, more than 60 members and their friends partaking of the excellent meal served. Bible study on the books of Ezra, Nehemiah and Esther, and the regular prayer meeting on the subject of "The Good Shepherd" followed, led by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Cole.

Baby Pearl Chambers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chambers of 736 South Glendale avenue, has been quite ill but is better. Mrs. Chambers is entertaining her sister, Mrs. R. T. Fisher, of Seattle, who has come south for a few days' visit with her. Another sister, Mrs. Granger, who also lives in Seattle and who has been a guest in the Chambers home, has returned to her home.

Mrs. R. L. Holland of Arden avenue reports that her son Robert, who is at Ojai with Donald Franklin working on a fruit ranch, writes that they are having a very good time in spite of the heat which runs up to 114 in the shade at times. The boys have both camped enough so they are capable of caring for themselves and get their own breakfast and lunch, going out to their dinners. Their work has been principally gathering and pitting fruit.

F. R. Baker, foreman for a big contracting firm of Van Nuys, was in the Evening News office this morning to place an ad for laborers needed on a job a few miles north of Montrose, next to ex-Lieut.-Governor Wallace's castle-like beautiful home. This job is a fine residence of great architectural beauty, of brick, tile and frame construction for a Mr. Goodwin of Los Angeles. He owns 10 acres there and will beautify the grounds quite extensively. It is expected the entire outlay will reach $30,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Meeker and children of East Colorado are enjoying their annual beach outing at Coronado Tent City in San Diego.

Mrs. Edgar Lloyd Smith of 504 Fairmont avenue is giving a house party this week for her little daughter, having invited out children of former neighbors in the Pico Heights section of Los Angeles.

Mrs. E. H. Learned of Sixth street and Vine avenue and Edgar Lloyd Smith of 504 Fairmont avenue are attending the School of Missions at Asilomar, which opened July 13th to last ten days.

Wilbur Francy, who built a garage to occupy as a temporary residence, at 321 Ivy, after he had sold his residence property at 454 Ivy, is now having another garage built for that big new machine he drove out here from the factory to live in.

Near the west end of Kenneth Road, along the south side on the parkway, are three rows of corn probably 1000 feet long and some of the stalks are 10 feet high. All are earing finely and they remind one of a corn field of the middle west.

Mrs. G. C. Harris of 1268 South Mariposa street spent the day recently at Redondo Beach in company with Mr. and Mrs. Linderman and their two children who have come here from Kentucky to make a permanent home. Mr. Linderman recently inherited a large estate from his father and has bought a home in Los Angeles.

Wm. E. Case was taken before Judge F. H. Lowe yesterday and a complaint read to him charging the theft by him from Kent & Son of 127 pounds of lead, 10 gunny sacks and 10 cement sacks. He is also charged with the theft of a lot of pipe fittings. He was put under $1000 bond to appear for a preliminary hearing next Monday and this morning was taken to the county jail, as he was unable to furnish bail.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton of 1216 S. Boynton street who came to Glendale from Los Angeles a few months ago, are entertaining the parents of Mrs. Newton—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parks from Macomb, Ill., who came the first of the month and will be here for several weeks. It is their first visit to California and it more than meets their most sanguine expectations, Mrs. Newton reports. Mr. Newton's mother is also a guest in his home. She has come from her home in Paso Robles to visit him and another son in Los Angeles.

J. M. Stuckey and his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chilvers, are busy furnishing the new home they have purchased at 1104 East Wilson avenue. For the past few months they have been living in El Centro, Mr. Chilvers having been connected with the First National Bank of that city. After inspecting various suburbs in Los Angeles county they decided Glendale was to their notion the most attractive from a residence standpoint. Mr. Chilvers is a brother of Mrs. G. C. Harris of South Mariposa street.

Mrs. O. P. Rider, her sister, and her daughter, Ruth Rider, returned Wednesday afternoon from an outing at Glen Ranch. On Tuesday Rev. and Mrs. Rider and their daughter will go to Santa Barbara to attend the meeting of the Synod to be held in that city. They will be guests in the home of Dr. Moore whose two daughters have just returned from Oberlin and who are great friends of Ruth Rider. Dr. Moore spent last Sunday in Glendale and preached for Mr. Rider in the forenoon, delivering a stereopticon lecture in the Central Avenue Presbyterian Church in the evening.

W. H. Clarkson and wife have moved into the rear house at 118 North Cedar, having sold their recently-acquired property at 1224 East Windsor Road to a Mr. Pomeroy. They drove out to the coast from Chicago three years ago in their Maxwell and moved to Glendale last April. They lived first up on Viola avenue, where two houses they were living in were sold one after the other. They and their son bought on West Colorado, but soon sold, then bought 2 1-3 acres with a small house on, at 1224 East Windsor Road. When that was sold Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson bought the property at 701 East Colorado, moving in on Cedar until possession could be given.

R. M. Hermann arrived in Glendale on June 19th with his wife and four husky boys, from Galveston, Texas. He at once bought a lot at 458 Hawthorne and put up a garage to live in which the family now occupy. A residence has been started on the front of the lot and will be pushed to early completion. Mr. Hermann is a contractor and builder and expects to put up several houses in Glendale, having already begun the purchase of lots for that purpose. He was born in Galveston and passed safely through the great storms of 1900, 1915 and 1919 that did so much damage and caused the loss of so many lives. He says the seawall, which was damaged last year, has been repaired and he thinks it makes the water front safe now. He has a great affection for the city of his birth, which, he says, is now fairly prosperous, and he still owns considerable property there.

BITTER MEMORIES REMAIN

Those untouched by the war or its sentiments who thought that the bitterness of the struggle would be forgotten soon after the signing of the armistice, and that the former belligerents would presently be associated as if nothing had happened, have been given something to think of by the storms of protest raised by entente sailors at the international seamen's conference at Genoa against admission of German seamen.

It is declared that in the latter delegation are men who were connected with Germany's U-boat warfare, as defenders of propagandists for it, if not taking direct part in the operation of the submarines. The credentials committee is now considering the protests, and the sentiment aroused practically guarantees that no one connected with the U-boat fiendishness in any form will be allowed to sit in the conference.

It is a reminder that memories of atrocities go deep. Outraging every instinct of manliness and humanity as they did, it is against nature that operators of German U-boats in the war should expect to be received in a fraternal spirit anywhere by the true sailor. It is well that such conduct is not forgotten. The everlasting condemnation of civilization on such things is one of the protections against them.

try, Luke 4:16; John 15:10; 1 Peter 2:21, 22. In fact, there is only one Sabbath day, or Lord's day, between the lids of the whole Bible," was the startling declaration of the Evangelist. He proved this by the following texts: In Luke 23:53-56, here it is evident that Christ was crucified on Friday, was laid in the tomb and rested Saturday, and arose the first day of the week. Luke 24:1. The disciples here kept the Sabbath, or Saturday, "according to the commandment." No intimation was ever given them by Jesus before or after His resurrection, relative to keeping Sunday. True, the disciples had assembled Sunday afternoon in an upper chamber but the purpose of this gathering was not to keep Sunday in any sense as a Sabbath, but they were hiding for fear of the Jews, John 20:19.

"Our Savior ascended into heaven about A. D. 33 and up to that date had never instructed His followers to keep any other day than the one then commonly kept, namely, the 7th day, Saturday. In fact, Jesus told them to keep, and pray that they might keep the Sabbath some 36½ years after He left them, read Matt. 24:20. This refers to the time when Jerusalem was destroyed in A. D. 70, by Titus, with the Roman Army. In Mark 2:27, 28, Christ said to them: 'The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. Therefore the Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath!' Some people claim that Sunday is the Lord's day, but Jesus called the seventh day, Sabbath, His day."

"Every Bible student knows," continued the evangelist, "that there is no Bible for Sunday keeping. Listen to these authoritative confessions: Lyman Abbott, editor of the Christian Union, Jan. 19, 1882: 'The current notion that Christ and His apostles authoritatively substituted the first day for the seventh, is absolutely without any authority in the New Testament.'"

Neander, the church historian, says: "The festival Sunday like all other festivals, was always only a human ordinance; and it was far from the intention of the apostles to establish a divine command in this respect; far from them and from the early apostolic church, to transfer the laws of the Sabbath to Sunday." Mr. Denufrio, the celebrated harpist, delighted the large audience with special numbers, most sweetly and skillfully rendered on his large harp. Mr. Prout announced for his subject this evening: "What Was Abolished at the Cross?"

BLAZING AIR TRAIL TO ALASKA

The importance of the proposed airplane flight from New York City to Nome, Alaska, lies not so much in the distance to be covered and the element of risk involved as in the more prosaic purposes it is expected to accomplish. It is to blaze the way for a transportation service to assist in the economic development of Alaska. The trip will demonstrate whether airplane transportation to Alaska is practical.

Alaska just now is attracting much attention because of its coal deposits and vast forests of spruce which offer raw material for the manufacture of paper to alleviate a shortage that is menacing the future of the publishing business in this country. To fly over vast stretches of wilderness into the Arctic zone is a feat of daring, but if the flight results in opening commercial air communication with our northern possession the effort will be well worth while.

LONG BEACH "SUCKERS" PLAN BIG COMMITTEE

In order to properly receive the twenty-five thousand Illinois folks expected at the famous summer picnic reunion in Bixby Park, Long Beach, Saturday, July 24th, the entire "Sucker" population of the beach city numbering at least five thousand will form a great reception committee. This will be the first monster summer reunion for Illinois folks and it is their intention to rival the Iowans.

All the popular picnic features will be used and many prizes offered for open competition.

The reunion will be under the auspices of the loyal Illinoisans and includes all from that state who are anywhere in the West.

TEMPER-SAVING MACHINERY

The value of labor-saving machinery for farm work is fairly well understood in these days, and most farmers are solving the help problem by installing such aids, but the Country Gentleman cites one instance in which the installation of labor-saving machinery in the house as well had such a beneficial effect upon the farm wife's cooking and temper that no further difficulty was found in getting the hired man to stay. Before this improvement in her household equipment the wife had been so grossly overburdened that a natural outlet for her frayed nerves and exhausted body had been slatternly cooking, and a tongue so shrewish that no help could be kept. In connection with the story the Country Gentleman has these further suggestions to make:

"We think the strike business has been largely overdone, but we are not sure but what these farm housewives whose husbands are hauled about on riding plows while their wives carry water from the barnyard well and rub dirt from clothes like Adam's daughter did, ought to strike in the interests of farm 'pep' and efficiency, not to mention justice. No farm can tick properly when the balance wheel of the family is all grimed up with drudgery."

A DISGUSTING SPECTACLE

The metropolitan press has been devoting from two to eight columns a day to the "Elwell case." We do not know what per cent of the reading public is interested in a murder mystery, but we doubt very much if the present New York "sensation" is worth the space devoted to it, even from a news value basis.

Out of the mass of published fact and fancy the thing that looms largest is that Ellwell, the murdered man, was about as useless if not as vicious a specimen of humanity as could be imagined. His chief claim to distinction was that he was an expert on whist and played the game for money. His gambling on the turf or across the green baize was not always successful, and one of his acquaintances declared rather admiringly that he was "an enthusiastic loser."

He was an idler, living by his wits, and not successful at that. What is set down as palliative of his life, but which is nauseating to decent folk, is that "he rigidly observed the code of ethics of his class in insuring against scandal the women who trusted him."

COLUMBIA NOVELTY RECORD ON RUSSIAN BALALAIKA

And Special Summer Dances on Columbia Records This Month

The balalaika, big brother of the mandolin, is the instrument which plays the Columbia Novelty Record this month. The Russian Balalaika Orchestra, conducted by S. S. Samuels, plays the waltz "Love and Money" and some popular Neapolitan melodies. The harmony of a balalaika orchestra is richer and deeper than that of an equal number of mandolins.

The Columbia Graphophone Company has gathered a large collection of special summer dance records this month. These were selected from all the best of the latest Columbia dance records.

Two of the leading records on this list are the Art Hickman Orchestra's two fox-trots, "Peggy" and "Tell Me Why," and the coupling of the fox-trot "Only," by Prince's Dance Orchestra, with the fox-trot "Chinese Lullaby," by the Waldorf-Astoria Dance Orchestra.

BANKING HABIT GROWS

One person out of five in the United States has acquired the banking habit, according to statements made by the national banks of the country to the comptroller of the currency. The increase since 1910 is 165 per cent. These figures, which do not include deposits in state banks, trust companies and building and loan associations, show that 20,380,350 accounts were carried on the books of national banks alone on May 4th, last.

France held first rank in the world before the war in percentage of population which had acquired the banking habit, and also ranked highest in the percentage of its people who made a regular practice of investing their savings in their own government's obligations. War loan campaigns in the United States familiarized our people with the function of banking, and the fact that they not only absorbed billions of Liberty bonds and Victory notes, but have cultivated the habit of doing business with banks and have increased their deposits therein is a development of high significance. Individual and demand deposits in our national banks foot up $13,533,908,000, an increase of $1,701,129,000 compared with the figures a year ago.

It is encouraging that bank deposits should increase during a period of high prices and extravagant spending.

WOMEN IN AVIATION

The ascent of a French aviatrix to a height of 21,325 feet, a greater altitude than any hitherto attained by a woman, is new evidence that in courage and enterprise the gentle sex is well able to hold its own with men.

Almost from the beginning women have taken a prominent part in aviation and have made invaluable contributions to its development. They have not only performed spectacular feats, but have worked unostentatiously to determine the powers of heavier-than-air machines for practical as well as exhibition purposes. They have made remarkable demonstrations not only of the airplane's ability to climb but also of its possibilities for long-distance and non-stop flights.

The women have given a pitifully large number of martyrs to the development of aviation. Harriet Quimby was killed eight years ago while trying for a new altitude record over Boston harbor. She was the fourth of her sex to meet death in airplane accidents in the United States, and since then there have been additions to the number.

It is regrettable that women should consider it necessary to take the risks involved in seeking to perform new feats and establish new records in aviation. It would be more pleasing to men if the path-finding in the art of flight should be left to them. But this cannot minimize the importance of what is owed by progress to the daring and ingenuity of women. With women joining with men in promoting not only aviation but every other branch of science, art and industry, the onward-march of civilization will be made with doubled strides.

Now that both national conventions are over, what is the matter with the politicians tackling the problem of the garden or accepting a job in some Middle West wheat field? They ought to be good for something.
